

What is the Ryanair Changing Name Fee?

Booking a flight is an exciting step in your travel plans, but sometimes, errors can occur or circumstances change. If you find yourself needing to change the name on your Ryanair flight ticket, understanding the associated fees is crucial.

1. Ryanair Changing Name Fee: Ryanair offers a "Name Change Correction" service for minor errors such as typographical mistakes. This service is available within 24 hours of booking. It allows you to rectify these small errors, but it does come at a cost, with a fee per passenger.

2. Significant Name Changes: If you require more substantial changes, such as transferring the booking to another person or altering the name outside the initial 24-hour window, Ryanair's policy is less flexible. Typically, they may not permit direct name changes and might require you to cancel the existing booking and rebook the ticket. This process often incurs additional charges, including any fare differences.

3. Contact Ryanair Customer Service: If you find yourself in a situation where a significant name change is necessary, it's advisable to contact Ryanair's customer service. While they might not always be able to change the name directly, they can provide guidance on available options and the associated fees.

4. Consider Travel Insurance: To safeguard against unforeseen changes or the need for name modifications, consider purchasing travel insurance that covers name change fees or allows you to transfer the ticket to another person. It's a proactive approach that can provide peace of mind.

In summary, the Ryanair Name Change fee varies depending on the nature of the change and the timing. Understanding the airline's policies and fees related to name changes is essential to make informed decisions and avoid unexpected expenses when adjusting your travel plans. Always double-check your booking details to minimize the likelihood of name-related issues from the outset.
